Dream with HeyJune Transcript

So, um, who by any chance had the chance to go through a little bit of hero's journey on your own? Like the actual, like videos and worksheets and modules? Okay. So some of the stuff might, there might be a little bit of an overlap, but there are some new materials I was thinking a lot about.

Some of you guys are here to hear about love, right? But others are here for business and money. And I actually think, I mean, I know for a fact they're, they're very closely interwoven. Um, so today's classes we're gonna, you know, we're gonna go deep into, am I Okay. Hey, by the way, on Zoom, where am I lagging for you guys?

I feel like I'm lagging. I don't know what's going on. It was like literally just fine until I opt on Zoom. I hope my computer doesn't like crap out on me middle of class. That'd be so disappointing. You know? On one second.

Just one second. Um, don't do this to me at a really important time.

Okay? But does everyone have their chart? Can you at least get that up please? Oh my God, this is what I get for having a million tabs open.

Am I? No, I don't think I'm better.

Okay. Hopefully I'm better now. If we will just proceed.

No, it's not closing. All right. Could you guys type in the comments, your rising sign and your Neptune placement? What house? What sign?

So lo is Aries. Aries Rising, Capricorn, Neptune, the 10th house, vertical rising. I remember Brita being vertical rising Neptune and Capricorn, both in Capricorn in the first house. I have so many lores about each Neptune placement 'cause I've done so many readings. Um, so I have a story for every single Neptune placement in every single house. So sometimes I kind of freak out when I see something, I'm like, oh, should I tell them? Should I not tell them?

I, I will keep it to myself. 'cause you don't, you're already going through so much you don't need to know. You don't need to know all the, all the things.

We have two Taurus risings in the class, Carol and I believe Carlos. Uh, two cap risings, Angela and Jack. Two Lar risings, myself and Britta one Aries Rising. Lauren, Jackie, Pisces Rising. We had a couple of Pisces Risings in the last class. Okay. I think my lag is better. Correct me if I'm wrong, but I think I'm a lot better.

Okay. Perfect. Thank you for your patience. Let's get started.

Okay. So let's talk about dream

now. Whatever you're here for, you know, whatever the reason is for you taking this class, um, it's because of a dream you have. Okay. Dream. It sounds like a good thing, but it's not. That's the problem. And you were all born with a built-in dream. So I want you guys to remember this thing. Your dream is completely different from what you're actually good at, and that's a big concept you have to get around.

Uh, I also wanna preface this by saying astrology is a very, very ancient, ancient modality. There's all these rabbit holes you can go down into. My goal for you is to not become an astr. That there, that's kind of a, like a, it's a waste of time. My goal through this class, in fact, for the next 12 weeks, my goal for you is to understand your strengths, your weaknesses, your pitfalls, what you're, what you're gonna go through the next 10 to 15 years of your life and how to navigate them because, um, for example, we're gonna talk about Neptune Transit today.

That's actually a, a pretty gnarly, pretty. Negative transit. I feel like astrologers might get mad at me for saying that, but I just have to be really honest. So my goal for you today is to understand what you're about to experience in the next 12 years and your skills and your strengths that you can tap into to avoid the shadow aspect of that Neptune Transit.

And this will impact you in love or in career either or.

And can you guys see my screen or no? You guys can see the dream slide. Okay. So at any given moment, feel free to unmute and you know, just like blur out a question. As you can tell, it's a very small group. I like really small group discussions. So if you have questions or comments, just feel free to unmute and ask.

Okay. So we're gonna go through the penthouse concept. We're gonna go through Neptune, we're gonna go through venous Mars, um, the elements and modality, which is new. And then we're gonna put it all together at the end. Yeah. All right, cool. So I want you guys to either like, share in the, in the chat. Yeah.

Actually, yes, please share in the chat. Like, uh, share in the chat. Why are you here? Like, what do you want in life? Like, what's your number one goal or objective out of this time that we spent together over the next 12 weeks? This is a safe space. It's very confidential. I have never had anyone share anyone else's responses ever outside of class.

So treat this as a time to really own your desire.

Really spell it out. And if you actually went through, um, just as pre-work, the dream module and hero's journey, we would've taken the arrows. So if you have left arrows, it's gonna be very specific. Why, what, when, where, how, if you have right facing arrows. It's kind of good to keep it vague, and if you're like, I don't know what you're talking about, then please go back after this class.

Go through the dream module and feel free to look through it. Okay. Now I want you to kind of do a self-assessment. When you think about that big goal, how does it make you feel? Do you feel like you're in a survival mode or do you feel like you're in that penthouse? The penthouse is where you kind of, I mean, if you're, if you're literally, I mean, this is not a penthouse, I apologize.

It's the Bir Khalifa, but if you're on the top of Bir Khalifa and you look at the outside, you can't really hear anything. You don't smell the trash. You get like a panoramic view of the city. You're chill, right? You get a bird's eye view. You get a bird's eye view of your life, your goals. You're not in this like weird like hustle mode, but if you're in the first floor or even the basement, you can smell the trash.

You can hear the cars. You live in fear 'cause you don't know what's gonna happen next. You don't know how to make rent. So when it comes to what it is you want in life, where do you, like, what floor do you think you're on?

And actually, um, I'm gonna take this a step further and say, you know, treat this as like a psychic penthouse like psychically. Do you feel safe or do you feel like you're in survival mode?

My sole work can align to my skills and app. Yep.

Perfect. Okay. For the rest of you guys, I'm just gonna assume you're, you wanna keep it to yourself, which is fine. But this first step is really important to fully acknowledge and own where you're at when it comes to your desires or in the penthouse, or you're in the first floor. The people that are, you know, in very stable, predictable situations for decades, but they're like not really happy.

They're the ones who don't wanna like claim it, right? They don't wanna like name it. They don't wanna admit where they're at. They're just like, well, it's fine. And next thing you know, it's just like decades go by and they didn't actually get what they wanted because they weren't able to own it to begin with.

So you have to own it. Now when it comes to your penthouse goals, let's go into what throws you off. So every single person wrote down what they wanted, right? I'm gonna tell you right now, what gets in the way of you achieving that Neptune. Uh, raise your hand if you're familiar with Neptune at all. Just like the lore or the story, the, your own placement or anything like that?

A little bit, yeah. Okay. Um, if I studied Neptune in my early twenties, I think I would've saved me a lot of time and heartbreak. Unfortunately, I studied the wrong things and, you know, I woke go one day and I was in my thirties. But if I knew this information, then I think I would've navigated my personal life goals much faster, much easier.

So Pisces is the last time of the Zodiac and Pisces rule by Neptune. So Pisces is the last time of the zodiac. And then, you know, you reset the cycle with, with Aries. Aries, the firstborn child. So Pisces represents sort of, you know, cheating death. Um, it ends life by dissolving the self and preserving the spirit.

In the form of stories. So this is why Neptune rules storytelling. It animates what's on scene and shapes how we're remembered. Everything in life is a story. Everything that happens in life, at least according to you, is a function of how you perceive and how you interpret it. Everything's a story. So Neptune in your chart really represents where you're telling yourself a story that isn't necessarily true or that isn't necessarily practical.

You could walk the guy or the girl, but if you have Neptune in the tent house, which I think some somebody does in this room, yeah. You, you consciously think, you, you, you want this goal, right? But then there's this like nagging Neptune story going on that kind of derails you from being on your mission. Of achieving that goal.

And I know this kind of sounds meta, but we can always walk through examples. So I've seen people go into overdrive trying to achieve their goals and they can't because Neptune bogs them down throughout their entire life. Let's, let's look at what that means specifically. Oh, and, but before we go into that, the way to combat Neptune is actually to focus on your Venus and Mars.

Neptune's, the outer planet. It's the unconscious collective dream that drowns you. Whereas Venus and Mars is like the inner planet. It's like the tangible, Venus is also feminine. Mars is masculine. Don't buy into the whole like, oh, you gotta be feminine to a attract. You gotta be masculine to get, you need both.

You need that polarity inside of you. So if you understand where you are generating that feminine versus masculine energy dynamics in your chart, it's gonna pull you out of that Neptune story. Do you guys know what I'm talking about? Like if you go through like after a really bad breakup or after like a job loss, it's easy to get like mired in that.

But if you can like look at where your Venus and Mars is and practice that, it actually pulls you up much faster.

That's a little life act in case you didn't know. Um, so Venus is about desire. Venus is actually a diva. She's very much like, I know who I am, I know what I want. I'm not gonna settle.

Mars is the go-getter. Mars is the effort. Mars is the action.

So they, they're actually supposed to like work together to help you get what you want. And like I said, it's hard for you to do that if you're bogged down by Neptune, which everybody does. By the way. This is why I'm telling you I wish I studied Neptune. Much earlier. Okay? So everybody put down what, uh, what house their Neptune was in, right?

So now remember your penthouse goals. Remember your penthouse street. I mean, without the goal. This, like, none of this matters. And I'm about to show you what your Neptune placement means. And I want you guys just take a moment just to reflect and think about like, okay, this Neptune placement that I have, well, well, like how did that get in the way of my pursuit of my penthouse streams?

This is a practice of like radical honesty. I have two slides on this. So, and I'm gonna go through my stories on my one really fast Neptune first house people, okay? If you have this natally, just know you're meant to be seen. Um, first house rules. Personality, your looks, how people perceive you. Neptune is like the, the smokescreen, right?

So you may sometimes feel like you're not really in control of your life or yourself. So it's important that you find something you can control in your life. Um, avoid power dynamics. Spend time outdoors being as grounded as possible. If you have. I always tell people, if you have Neptune in the angular houses, first, fifth, seventh or 10th, those houses, you're extra susceptible to putting people, places, things on a pedestal. You don't see it accurately. And every Neptune first house people person, I know every single one of them.

One of my clients actually is, uh, uh, Drake's attorney. She has Neptune, the first house, super successful, right? She's broke, she has zero boundaries with her clients. It's amazing. That's what Neptune does to you in the first house. You can be the most brilliant, talented person, but if your self perception is poor, you're not gonna have strong boundaries and you will be taken advantage of also, bonus points, it also means it's a very attractive placement.

'cause Neptune also signifies beauty, uh, also besides Venus. So it's like, you know, so she's also, unfortunately for her, she's, I feel like she gets taken advantage of a lot in romantic relationships. So there's that, there's that happening too. Um, so like I said, I'm gonna go through every story I know about each step two in placement.

So that's the first house. Okay. Now, but like I said, you have to bridge it back to your goals. Don't get stuck in the Neptune and go back to your goal. How has this Neptune placement gone in the way, literally over your hero's journey? Maybe you were trying to make a lot of money at one point, but then you were afraid of being seen, or maybe you had really bad boundaries of, of, you know, charging what you're worth or, I mean, that's not exactly that, but um.

Keep in mind, Neptune also makes you like very, like unnecessarily empathetic towards people that don't need it.

And because first house is like literally the gatekeeper of the rest of your chart, it can make you boundaryless in, in every realm. Jack, why are you laughing? It's just hitting home very, very hard for me. So yeah, I'm, I'm just thinking back like, yeah, this is, this is making a lot of sense. Yeah. So EE, exactly.

So it has nothing to do with your abilities, because like I said, you can be extremely successful, but behind closed doors, there could be this story going on where you're not putting yourself first. Mm-hmm. You know? So, um, thanks for sharing. That's, that's, I'm glad to hear that. But now, you know, and you can avoid that.

Right. Neptune, the second house. Um, it, it's, this is an interesting placement because these folks, so it says the material won't give you that much. Meaning these folks, uh, either literally work in Neptune ruled industries. So what does Neptune rule? Again? Dreams, illusions, sometimes drugs, a lot of times alcohol.

So oftentimes I meet Neptune and Second House, uh, people who literally work in pharmaceutical or sell alcohol or work in the CBD industry. It's very, very fascinating. If you have this placement, but you work in construction, you gotta switch industries. That's another way Neptune can be helpful to you.

You know, if it, if it's in these like money houses, people think like, oh my gosh, I have Neptune, my money house. Well, you can work with it still. You can make it, it's only bad if you go try to go against it. But you can work in sort of these like illusory industries, right? Or you can work in like film or arts.

Um, but yeah, once again, Neptune does kind of rule addiction so you can become addicted to second house. Things like money, income, material things. So just be mindful of that third house. Um, I don't think anyone has third, I'm just gonna breeze through the ones where people don't have it. So, um, very psychic placement.

'cause third house is all about your, your mental faculty. Try. It's so Neptune third house people are re are really confused. Like, you know, they, they need to just trust their inner thought process instead of like, listen to everyone else. That's what third house is, fourth house. Um, setting boundaries with boundaries with family.

I don't wanna call anybody out, but I, I actually know someone on this screen who has this placement. This is about, uh, yeah, not seeing your family the right way and you just need to be extra harsh with them so that they don't take advantage of you. Fourth house is, is also the psychic house. It's the house of ancestors, so you could also have a very psychic connection to your ancestors.

If you are looking for a partner and you have Neptune, the fourth house, you also have to be careful that they don't interfere too much about who you get, who you end up with. That's a bonus point right there. Neptune Fifth House, who has Neptune Fifth house. I have Neptune Fifth house. I think Brenda does too.

Yeah. So like I said, oh, by the way. I forgot to mention this. Also pay attention to where Neptune's going next. Right now it's in Aries, right? So it's transiting Lauren's first house. It's transiting Brita's eighth house. You gotta find your Aries house. We're gonna do this a lot throughout this 'cause I'm gonna tell you to find what, whatever house, you know.

So even if you don't have this natally, you have to potentially to where it's moving next. Okay? For Angela, it's moving into her seventh house. I apologize, I don't remember the rest of people's charts, but, um, so just keep this in mind. So, so if you have, if you have Sagittarius, rising Neptune's, about to go through your fifth house.

'cause fifth house is, is Aries going to the Sagittarius chart. So, um, fifth house is romance. If you have Neptune going through Fifth House, just be prepared to, uh. You know, uh, be in a lot of situation ships. That's kinda a negative way of saying it, but because you could also just be extremely creative for the next 12 years.

But fifth house is romance, so you're gonna be dating people and you're not gonna be seeing them accurately at all. At all. Um, so let's just say you're, you're trying to become like a doctor, like a, like a surgeon or whatever, but then you have this transit going on. Just be careful that you don't, you know, mess up an exam, put your career aside 'cause you, uh, get bogged down by like a weird relationship.

That actually happens a lot. Anytime I see a Neptune Transit in the fifth house, seventh house, 10th or 11th house, first house, you could have these big career goals, but you can get super derailed by like weird romantic partners. And that will take years off your, like, that happens all the time. Yes. Brita, I'm just having something click in now.

Where like I just stepped away from a group of friends. So it's like relationships because I have Neptune the fifth that I'm realizing now that I stepped away was like really suffocating my potential and really just like not supporting me. Is that kind of what you're trying to say with the Neptune Fifth House thing?

Like it's a relationship? Yes. Like my romantic relationship doesn't really do that, but my friendships don't do, I dunno. Oh yeah, for sure. So Fifth House is a house of play, so absolutely, depending on what chapter of life you're in, this could be anybody that you interact with in a playful way, playful, romantic or whatever, like a joy based way.

Um, I know parents who had a really, really difficult relationship with their kids during the Neptune Transit, through their fifth house. I'm talking like just, you know, really, really harsh dynamics. So, so you're absolutely right that complete checks out with your friends. Um, if Neptune's about to go through your sixth house or going through your sixth house.

Sixth house is a house of, this is actually a business house. If you can master this house low key, you'll also be very successful because it's like the COO like operations house. This is about your environment, your office, your, your employees, your your pets, even um, your health. It's like the mundane, everyday activities kind of house, but the house actually does build your business.

So I think Carol has a Jupiter political conjunction or sixth house. This is actually someone if, if they can master their day operations, like they can grow really big kind of a thing. But if you have Neptune going through here, um, so from my experience, I mean, well, let's just see what this thing says. Uh, yeah. So this is, this is, if you, if you have Neptune going through this, just get ready to be a little bit selfless. Just don't be afraid to like be, you know, of service to other people. And this is kind of interesting because every time I've worked with someone who had a Neptune Transit through sixth house, there were, they, they were pretty successful for some reason.

A lot of them entered the beauty business during this time. Sixth house daily rituals, right. Neptune Beauty. So when a transit, a lot of them like start like makeup companies, but they became like very ruthless leaders for some reason. Um, so it's important to not over dictate your environment during this time.

Yeah. Jack, so I just want to make sure I'm understanding correctly. When you say the tra that the Neptune transit into a house, are you actually referring to the physical location of Neptune? Like currently right now? Yes. Um, correct. So if you're Capricorn rising, I don't remember on top of my head where Neptune is.

Uh, sorry. Aries is, what's the Aries house in your chart? What my, I have Aries in the six house. Oh no. Uh, Aries is on my chart. It's the fourth house. Fourth house, okay. So you have Neptune literally going through your fourth house. So that's a, that's where you really, yeah, that's a good question. So our natal chart is like a photograph of where the stars were when we were born.

Mm-hmm. Mm-hmm. But transiting is because, you know, we live and we grow older and the planets move on and then they move around your chart too. They progress. So there's two things you gotta look at. One, one that you're born with Natal. That's what the natal is thing called. That's called. Mm-hmm. And then there's a transit chart, which is like, okay, as you get older, where do the planets progress to?

Oh, okay. So like on our birth charts, on our natal charts, like with Neptune, for me being in the first house, that's like something that's gonna stick with me more or less forever. Yeah. And then as Neptune transits through the other houses, then these other things I would be experiencing at that point.

Okay. Alright. Okay, that makes sense. Yeah. So there's always two Neptune stories you gotta pay attention to at the same time. That's a great clarifying question. So, so Jack, for you, the last 12 years, Neptune was transiting actually your third house, your, your, your thoughts, the way you communicate all that stuff.

Um, but fourth house is, yeah, now it's, now it's going through your house of family, but I don't think anyone has sixth house, Neptune. So let's move on. Seventh house, I told you guys, angular house is very, very difficult. First house, fifth house, seventh house, 10th house. So this is the one-on-one contracts.

This is marriage, this is business partnership. Um, make sure you don't sacrifice yourself too much. Make sure you, I always tell people, make sure you double check your contract if you have Neptune Transit in your seventh house. Uh, Britta and I just finished this transit. It was bad. Fun fact, this did not, this did not happen to Britta, thank goodness.

But the last several times I ran this program, every single Virgo Rising, I knew it's kind of funny, um, had to go through a divorce 'cause they found out their partner was cheating on them with a stripper. It's like literally not seeing your partner correctly. Or even if you see, that's the thing with these planets.

Like even if you think, even if you're trying really hard to it's, and, and you think you're vetting really hard, um, Neptune kind of does its thing. So does that mean it has to happen to everyone? No, obviously not, but that's a lot of what I saw. Um, okay. But it's also a really beautiful time because you can be very inspired by the ones you love.

There's that happening too. Like you can be really inspired by romance and like human connection and relationships, and it can like, really dial up your artistry. Okay. If Neptune's going through your eighth house, eighth house is so like, misunderstood. I feel like, I don't know, I don't know that I completely agree with what this is saying here.

It, it takes on a little bit of a similar tone as seventh house, but with less of a romantic lens and with more of a financial lens. So be very careful about who you do business with, who you sign on as a partner, like business partner, financial partner, investor. Um, also quick sidebar, Neptune is, you know, it does also rule creativity.

So any of these transits, like I said, with the second house stuff, right, like alcohol industry, there is opportunity for you to be really, really creative. So, eight house transit, six house transit, second house transit, 10 house transit. There's an opportunity for you to be financially or professionally extremely creative.

If you, uh, dot your i's, cross your t's, just don't be naive. And with any of these houses, just don't be naive. That's why you're here. You, you're learning this stuff, right? Um, but yeah, here it says like there might be some abandonment with displacement, abandonment, abandoned by the nature of chance and chaos.

So, so eight House is a very mystical house. It's a psychic house. It rules tax death. Also rules sex. So there, there is an involvement, outer forces that you may not always feel like you're in control of. I think that's why it's saying like, don't be surprised if circumstances happen that kind of make you feel partless, but whatever.

Um, but I've always seen eighth House as more like financial, because that's how it played out for me. Ninth House, love this Transit. If you're going through Neptune, your ninth house, is anyone going through Neptune Ninth House or born with it? This is Home run. Congratulations. You're kind of in the clear for the next 12 years.

'cause ninth House is, it's the religious house. It is the higher learning house. It is traveling abroad. Um, I know here it says like avoid scams and cults, but honestly, like, I haven't really seen that happen to people, so this is a really great time to go on that journey to, to find God, so to speak. 10th House, is anyone going through Neptune?

10th house. Oh, well you're born with it, Lauren, right? You're born with it. Yeah.

It doesn't say here, but I will say this, Neptune 10th house people are, uh, low key, very gifted. I've noticed. Like they have this like, touch of like brilliance. It's like, how did you do that? Like, because again, Neptune is like the, it's like the miracle worker almost to the point of like, trickery. So, you know, you're, you can probably do things where people go like, how did you do that?

the way this could actually derail your life goals, other things you want in life is because you prioritize your career a little too much. Same thing with Neptune, the fifth house. You might prioritize romance a little too much. If it's going through your fourth house, you might suddenly prioritize your family a little too much.

And you're like, oh, but I had this thing I wanted to do, but wait, like this thing, this Neptune house is like calling me and I gotta take care of it.

So Neptune, like, it's like a, it dangles a carrot in front of you. It says that you can, you can have it, you can, you can get it. It's beautiful. But during this transit, you might find yourself like chasing, chasing, chasing, without any real results. You have to like, be very, very mindful of that. Um, so Lauren, for you, this means being aware that a career, it's not really about status.

When, when, when astrology was first made, whatever, 5,000 years ago, there was no such thing as a career. Back then. It was just like aristocrats or like peasants, right? So the 10th house isn't really about career, it's actually more about purpose. So being more connected to your purpose rather than status is the key.

When Neptune's going through your 10th house, or, uh, you have, you have it natally 11th house. Um, so this is like a Brita story, what she shared, like where you could like have the, the, the wrong friendships or whatever. Um, if you're not careful. So same thing, just be careful about who you associate with 12th House, another home run.

I love it because it's like a very subconscious psychic house. If you, if you have Neptune transiting that, then, uh, then you'll become more spiritual. But if you have it natally, you can be prone to depression, addiction, psychosis, all this stuff. Carol, where is Neptune? What are you born with and where is it Transiting Carol?

Curious. I actually don't have my birth chart on me right now. I only had took a screenshot of when we met. Yeah. But, well, okay. But we have Carlos and Carol who are both Taurus rising. I just don't know. Wait, if you're Taurus rising, then Aries 12th house, or is it No second. I'll have to check. I, I'm a, I'm a Pisces Rising.

Sorry. Oh, oh, you are? Okay. I'm, I apologize, but I'm a Taurus son. Yeah. Oh, okay. So that, okay. Yeah. Cool. So, so, so Jackie and Carlos were Pisces Risings, right? Okay. So, okay. So you guys see you guys, so you guys just went through, Jackie and Carlos just went through what Jack was born with, the Neptune, the first house.

So for, so the last 12 years, you experienced what Jack has been experiencing in his whole life. Okay. Um, that's kinda how this works. How was it for the first house? Ugh, that's rough. At least for me. Yeah, it, it, yeah. Those development years. Yeah. Right. So, so. If you have Neptune, the first house you could be chasing or wanting like an identity for yourself or wanting to be known for something or seen as something you could, you could be hyper-focused on that and then kind of like get derailed at everything else.

That's how it kind of plays out. Neptune will derail you because it keeps promising you like this big dream, big illusion. Okay. All right. So we don't have any, uh, wait. No, but Carol, you're okay. You're tor. Can someone tell me, is Aries the 12th house or the second house? I should know this by heart, but I don't.

It's it's a, uh, 12th house. 12th house. Okay. So thank you. So, uh, so this is really beautiful, Carol. Like, Neptune's go is, you know, it entered your 12th house, but that also means you've been dealing with Neptune going through your 11th house for the last 12 years. So that also means people, friends, lovers, that may not be healthy.

You're done with that now, now it's going through your 12th house and that's all about healing. Um, if you have a Neptune and Pluto, Uranus, any of these outer planet transit in your 12th house, just a side note, make sure you are, you stay away from drugs, alcohol, you stay connected to meditation. Something tangible and grounded.

You don't want to go into like a weird, you know, phase of falling for like a, a very bizarre spiritual practice. Um, anyway, but that's not Carol, so I'm not too worried now. Okay, sorry that took a hot minute 'cause there's a bunch of other stuff I wanna go through. But when it comes to your penthouse, let's go back to your penthouse.

So now let's talk about how to overcome these Neptune blind spots. That was really important for you guys to understand. Um, you have to understand what makes you sparkle. Okay? Your Venus, your your Venus and Mars. Please tap in the comments. What's your Venus, what's your Mars?

This is the most woo woo you'll ever see me get 'cause I actually don't like that, but I have to just put it out there because it works for me. I have an Aquarius, Venus. I swear to God, when I tap into my air element, I, it, it help, it helps me like quote unquote manifest better. If I pretend to be a water Venus or fire Venus, it never works.

It always backfires. So I don't care so much about what your venous sinus, I care more about the element. Remember, Venus is about desire. So whatever it is you desire, you gotta put it in this element container. So lemme look at the chat. Now the reason why this is important is because so many people, I think, I, I think too many manifestation teachers like try to tell you like the perfect formula, and there's no perfect formula.

You only gotta follow your own unique blueprint. So, um, let's see here. Two areas of Venuses, one Virgo, Venus.

Okay, so

is Lauren. Lauren and I are the only he, Venus. So Lauren and I we're both air venuses. We have to get super clear in our thoughts, super clear in our thoughts. Um, it's, it's less about the emotions. It's less, it's more about the clarity of the vision, like intellectual vision, mental vision. If you have a Earth, Venus, like Brita, it's about.

Being super grounded in what it is you want. Being able to like describe it in five senses. You can almost like touch it. You can almost see it. You can like, feel it.

Same thing with Jack, uh, Jackie Virgo, Venus Earth. Venus is, from what I've noticed, you know, they have very little patience for bullshit and they're very little, little patience for anything that is in fact based. It's actually really annoying because I'm very like mental and I like to like talk about 10 different things.

They're like, what are you talking about? Slow down. Gimme just three things. So the Virgo Venuses are very difficult to argue with. Just, just, just, just saying that out loud. So that's a, that's a little tidbit for you Jackie. Don't go down with, with Earth Beat is, don't go down a rabbit hole. You don't need to go down.

Stay focused, but be grounded. Um, fire, we have two. Okay. Yeah. So. You have to put yourself in places, opportunities where you can shine. I, I tell, um, there's this one client that I had who had a Aries Venus and she was always like working in the background in a corporate job for years and years and years.

Um, and I told her this was independent of astrology, but I told her, I was like, I think you should start performing, like, you know, just sign up as like a comic, you know, you can just like sign up to do like standups. And now she does like tours around the country as like a standup comic. She literally just had to be put on stage where she could just crack a joke or whatever.

But you know, if you met her 10 years ago, you'd have never guessed I should be doing that. So if you're naturally kind of shy, you have to almost go against that instinct and pull yourself out there anyway. Um.

So, is everyone clear about that? No one else here is Aquarius Venus, but I'm just gonna share this tip and maybe you can do your own research. Aquarius also rules, um, frequency and vibration and the internet. So I always like to, this is why I'm saying like, this is the most Google you'll, you'll see me get.

I always like to pretend I'm like tapping into a certain frequency. Don't ask me how I do it. I just do it. I just imagine that I am tapping into some kind of el electricity and then I swir like in 24 hours or 48 hours, like it appears. So within your own sign, I, I recommend you to research. You know what your sign like represents a little bit, so no, no one here is venous cancer, but, but cancer, I, I, I, I really think when they like cook a meal, like they manifest, I, I don't know, it just seems to work.

So something like that for yourself. Okay. Aries, Venus, maybe you should work out. Maybe as you're working out, maybe you should work out in a location where everybody can see you and in that moment maybe you should visualize what it's, you want something like that. Like I would really double, triple up all these different modalities and elements.

Okay. So this is also really cool. I didn't wanna use a word at track 'cause that's so cliche, but I did use the word signal. This is how you can signal to the universe what it is you want. So if your Cardinal Venus, Aries Cancer, Libra Capricorn. So this is actually, wait, no, not Jackie. Lauren.

Quickly let's talk about dating and romance. If you're a Cardinal Venus, you have to make the first move. You just do. Cardinals are like the initiator. I, I know. I'm sorry Lauren. You just have to, okay.

That's why I'm saying following like generic dating advice, like does not work. It it, and no matter what it is you want, if you're a Cardinal Venus, always state your intention. I want this, I want to achieve this. I desire this. Don't like mince your words and be very shy about what it is you want. Don't do that.

That's, that's what mutable should do. The Gemini, Virgo Sag and Pisces, the, the, the mutable venuses, they signal to the universe by being super open to whatever.

Virgos, I don't know. I kind of wanna, I, I feel like Virgos are kind of strange because they are mutable, but they don't really act mutable. I feel like VIRs actually act more like fix signs. But every time I've seen a mutable. Venus go with the flow almost to like a really strange degree. They always get what they want.

Now, uh, you know, as we progress to other classes, you're gonna see this sounds like double. Wouldn't you do this? The thing is, you get conditioned by your family when you're growing up. So you might have been raised by like a Scorpio, Venus mom who told you, stop doing that. This is how you stray from authenticity and you stray from your unique energy.

So if you're a mutable Venus, um, just be ready for change at any time. And you know, like it says, your dance would change if you're fixed, Venus, you get what you want by being super secure and, uh, by being super solid in who you and what you want. If you are a fixed Venus that acts like a cardinal or mutable, it's gonna backfire.

I've seen this happen. I've seen a TAUs Venus try to go with the flow. It's like the worst thing they can do because now people are like confused, energetic people are confused by like, what are you trying to do? So in like a group project, Cardinal Venus is the one that initiate, Hey guys, let's do this.

Uh, fixed venuses are ones that like, you know, anchor the vision, like carry it through. Like, you know, they don't like to suddenly switch directions. They're like, okay, let's do this. It's the Mutal Venus, like that. Make edits along the way that can make the slide change on the 11th hour because the TAUs Venus will probably not do it.

You know? So same thing, the way you get what you want as a fixed Venus. Even if you get so Britta, even if someone says like, Hey Brita, like, I actually think we should do this last second. You get what you want by saying like, no, nope. This is what I want the end. No matter how much people like thrash around you.

So if you've been conditioned to, you know, be super accommodating and to always like, go with, with what other people want, that's, that's not gonna work out for you in the long run. Does this resonate with y'all a little bit with yourself?

Yeah. So the, so the fixed venuses, um, they're the people that I'm mostly worried about because especially when given dating advice, you're, you're told to be super passive. You're told to be chill, you're told to go with the flow, and that just does not work for fixed venuses. You still have to stay on your ground and say like, I want what I want.

Shut up and if you're not gonna meet me, I gotta move on. So, um, so that's why I really struggle with like generic advices out there. Okay. So let's put it all together. Let's see if we can do this fast.

I have this. Switched around. But anyway, this is the formula, right? Your Venus is what you desire. Your Mars is where you put the effort in, what you're driven by, but, but Neptune's your blind spot, right? So you overcome Neptune by channeling your Venus and Mars. So I want you guys to, on a piece of paper, write, write this down, Venus, Mars, Neptune.

And then I also want you to do this under Venus. Write down the house and write down these keywords. So for example, Jack Neptune and First House, right? So you have to write down Capricorn first house. What does it say? My life force, my expression, how things go, my being.

Okay,

you can almost take a screenshot if you can't. So we do the, we put the Venus house under the thing we desire, or sorry, the Neptune house under the thing we desire. That's a great, that's a great question. Oh, uh, I think I moved on too fast. This is the actual slide, but actually while we're at it, I want you guys to grab the keyword for all of these.

So Venus has a house, right? Mars has a house. Neptune has a house. I want you to write down all the keywords for all the houses. So Venus' desire Mars is what you're driven by. Neptune is blind spot. Then did I answer your question, Brita? So, under Venus, we're using our Venus House or our Neptune house. Your Venus House.

Venus House. Venus House. Yeah. So your Taurus house I desire.

Oh, I see what you're saying. We'll get there in a second. So I desire my Taurus qualities in my Taurus house. So Taurus for you is actually your ninth house. So Brita, your keywords for Venus would be your studies, your travels, your values, or philosophy.

Lemme just move on to the next slide real fast. I can come back to this as necessary. And then also write down the keywords for the actual signs.

So, Brita would write down for Venus, uh, she values loyalty, sensuality, comfort patients, all this stuff when it comes to her ninth in her ninth house. So I want you guys to do this for, for your Venus, your Mars, and your Neptune words are very limiting, right? Like, clearly there's so many more words that can belong in each of these categories.

So I just want you to like, get the basics down and in your own time, like form it into a better sentence, in a way that suits your life better.

So, who got the, who wrote on the Venus sign in house? Raise your hand. Okay. Brita Lauren, who got their Mars sign in house written down?

Not yet. Okay.

I know it's a lot of writing.

Great question. I have both Venus Morris in the same sign. I both desire and driven by the same thing. What house? Jackie Seventh House.

Very interesting.

Let me think about that for a second because I don't wanna say the wrong thing. Can you go back to the houses one?

So, uh, so Jackie, for you, you really have to pay attention to the, the modality and the element of your venous Mars. Uh, what, what, what is your, wait. No, you said Virgo. Oh yeah. Virgo, Venus, Mars. Mm-hmm. Huh.

I'm trying not to be biased 'cause I know too many of them. I know too many. Virgo, Mars venous, conjunct people. Um, this is why Cheryl to teach sometimes because I have a story for everything. Mm-hmm. Story, an example for literally everyone and everything. But if you go back to. The, the inherent nature of Virgo.

It's mutable and it's also the grounded.

Yeah. So in your one-on-ones with Alana, for those of you guys that are an artist's way, um, she's gonna, she's gonna go into this more deeply with you because she's gonna actually go into, uh, your venous signs more specifically. Because unfortunately, some venuses are more powerful than others. And Virgo is not very powerful in Venus.

Like, I'm, I'm even trying to explain like how to work with that. And it's really hard because on one hand you have to go with the flow, but on the other hand, you have to be grounded. That's why Virgos struggle. 'cause they're like, well, I wanted this, but now I have to go with the flow. Or. Rgs have a reputation for being fussy, right?

Like super, like being very fussy with their partner, being very fussy with their routines. Especially in Venus, they're very like, they wanna fix everything. They're like, why'd you put the dishes away? You know? And it's kind of like cool, like you're grounded, literally. Like you're trying to fix everything, but at the same time, can you just like lighten up a bit?

So that's why like Virgo Venus is like really struggle when it comes to romantic relationships because you wanna be chill, but you notice everything you know, and then you wanna fix everything and then you complain about it and then you get in trouble. It's a double whammy, you know? So, and we're gonna talk about this more in other classes, but you guys are going to hear me and other experts say a lot.

Like, just embrace how you are and who you are.

You're gonna hear a lot about the, the negative aspects of your, your venous signs or whatever. That's okay. Like for example, Aries, Venus, you're gonna hear that you're super impulsive. Be impulsive.

If you've ever been punished for being too impulsive, you've gotta let that story go. Just do it. That's kind of how you get what you want, because at some point people are gonna find out who you really are. So might as well just let them know now, like upfront how you operate, you know, and that way you get the right people into your life, the right jobs and the right opportunities.

Um, Lauren and Carol, can you guys see a little bit how your, maybe your Neptune placement may have, like on a subconscious level, derailed you from your true goals?

Yes. But to be honest, I'm a little bit new to all this stuff. So I think when I schedule my time with Alana, then maybe more, most of this will make sense. Yes, yep. Absolutely. I guess for me, realizing that kind of my career choices kind of have to be a higher purpose. So I can't fully be selfish is one of those like tough pills to swallow.

Like I'm over it now. Like I'm in a career that I do take care of other people, but younger me would've been fighting that whole thing. Yeah. Mm-hmm. Um, I feel like Alana's gonna get mad at me later 'cause I didn't go into Venus enough 'cause she told me to tell you guys to go into Venus more. 'cause it's, 'cause this because as the weeks progress, you're gonna compound.

If you think this is confusing, it's gonna get even more technical beyond this. 'cause this is what you're born with. Right. And these are the transits. Guess what? There's also as cryptography. So not only do you have a chart you're born with, but then there's plants that are translating, hitting you. And on top of that there's an energy, there's a chart that your city has.

So you have three things interacting, um, with your life. So that's why like being super anchored in like your Venus and Mars are very important because that's the only thing that's going to like reliable for you to use and draw from when you try to go get what you want in your real life. So, uh, if you have, I'm just gonna use myself as an example.

Neptune in the fifth house, which I do actually, and I had Pluto, no, no, no, let's do the Neptune. I have Neptune, my fifth house, and then I had Neptune translating my seventh house, which that actually happened. Brita knows, 'cause we have the same chart. And then I was in New York, living in New York City and that's not where I was born.

I was living in New York City where I had Saturn on my ascendant. And you guys are gonna learn that. That's a triple whammy. I was born with Neptune Place, my fifth house. I have a Neptune going through my relationship house. And on top of that I have a, I have a, I'm living in a city where's Saturn's permanently on, on top of my first house.

And um, during times like that, which was, that was a very difficult time for me. It's important to remember what your goals are. 'cause these Neptune right, it has its own agenda. That's the problem. That's why it's a problem. 'cause it has its own thing it's trying to make you do. That's why you have to like, bring it back and remember like who you are, what is you really want, deploy your Venus and Mars and if necessary move.

I feel like my life really opened up when I finally moved. And some of y'all don't have to move. It just depends. We're gonna like look at it. But I had Saturn on my Senate like at zero degrees. That's like super powerful. The Saturn is like the. It's like the oppressor. It makes you like not go anywhere.

So I have these debates with students forever that they're like, I'm living on my Saturn line, I don't have to move. I'm like, well, you can stay that way then. I dunno what to tell you, but you have to move at some point. Or Pluto line or you know, you're gonna sign for that matter. Like all these gnarly things.

So these are just building blocks. So this is just phase, just literally the first class, just to give you guys a heads up. But, um, so everything you wrote down, you have the formula, right? Let's wrap up with this.

Let's get, let's get some volunteers who wants to walk through their, uh, their sentence. And you can riff. You don't have to go exactly with what you saw in the word bank. You can riff and just kind of try to make sense of it, right? This is all about storytelling.

Living on my set. Yeah. Mm-hmm.

Oh, I forgot Caroline was here. I think it's because your camera's off and I just saw this black box in the corner. I apologize because I have both Venus and Mars in the same sign. I both desire injured by the same things. The the short answer is yes, Jackie, the, the Venus Mars conjunct people are typically very magnetic because they have that healthy polarity inside of them. Fun fact, nobody asks for like Timothy Chalamet has that.

MGK has that. Um, you know, like these typical like sex symbols, right? They have Venus Mars conjunct in the same sign. Um, so they're actually really powerful manifesters. I'm sure you're a powerful manifest for Jackie. It's, it's just that when it comes to love, it's a bit tricky because you have that 50 50 feminine masculine thing going on.

Um, and it's in the sign of Virgo. So I want you to talk about that with Lana. But if I'm being honest, this is like deja vu because I feel like the last few times I got questions about this Venus Mars conjunct, it was always somebody in Virgo, like Virgo, Venus, Mars always, um, I don't think I really knew how to answer back then either.

I apologize. But this, this is where I, I'm gonna refer you to Alana. I feel like she's gonna have a more diplomatic answer to this. The good news is you'll always successful. Always Jackie. That's, that's good news. Professionally at least. And be, yeah, seven TA's. Actually, that's kind of good too, for relationships.

But let's go into examples. I. Does anybody, does anybody wanna like, share what they wrote down, how they made sense of what they wrote down, or not really? Oh, Lauren, go ahead. So I wrote, I desire being prioritized in my one-to-one agreements, my marriage, my relationships, and my businesses before I saw the Libra qualities.

And I feel like, I guess being prioritized would be with fairness instead of always feeling like I need to compromise. Oh, I'm sorry, say that one more time. Uh, I guess like before I saw the Libra Quality words I wrote with the, I desire, like being prioritized as the Libra Venus in like the seventh house.

Um, and I guess that would be the closest to the ones listed would be like fairness instead of feeling I have to compromise like all the time. Mm-hmm. Where did you get the prioritized thing from? Is that your Mars placement or, oh, no, that was, I didn't see the words, and I like wrote that first before seeing the I see, I see, I see.

So I came up with that on my own, and then I was like, oh, oops. There's words.

Hmm. What's your Mars placement? Virgo. In what house? Six House. Six house. Six house. Yeah. Did you, did you actually complete that full sentence with Mars and Neptune, or did I miss that? Oh, I just did my, I just said my venous one. Was I supposed to, were they three different, yeah, the full thing, please. Sure.

Um, I desire diplomacy, fairness, aesthetics, grace in my one-to-one agreements, my marriage, my relationships, and my business. I'm driven by practicality. Discernment service, perfection analysis in my acts of service, how I use my time, how I survive, and how I adjust a problems. I have a blind spot.

Discipline, responsibility, ambition, structure and authority, and escape into public facing actions. What I protect my career, my reputation, and my contributions.

So in order for you to not fall into Neptune Pitfall, 'cause there's always gonna be that like Gremlin that says, Hey, you can do more in your career, right? You have to look at the Venus and the Mars. So, um, this is actually, I actually like Libra Venus in the seventh house because, you know, you, you would, you truly prioritize the connection and the love and the um, the fairness of it all with your partner.

So every time you get bogged down by your career stuff, it's important to realize, am I, especially when you get married later, am I not giving my partner enough airtime because of my career? The Virgo Mars. And I actually wonder if subconsciously that there's a happening too. Maybe you're looking too much out for fairness and therefore not putting yourself out there.

I'm just, I'm just riffing, but,

and Venus is like the initiator, right? So that's another tricky thing. 'cause you wanna, you have to initiate, but then I'm sure you start wondering like, but is that fair? Is it, is it fair for me to start initiating honest com communication and vulnerability? Is it, is it fair to do that? Because I don't wanna be the only person doing that.

Like, I'm sure you have these stories going on inside your head, but as a lever of evidence, you're, you're kind of supposed to initiate, you're supposed to say first like, Hey, I think you're cute, or like, I wanna see her, or whatever.

That's fine. It's just, I hate being the one to always be like, I'm doing 90% of the work, so I don't mind opening the door, but then it's like, oh, I'm driving the car too. Like. And I kind of wanna be passenger princess. Yeah.

I'm trying to think.

Well that's also where like your Mars, so Mars and the sixth house, just in general, you kind of have to check yourself, right? Because maybe you're overdoing it. Mars, by the way, you guys is like the over doer. If Venus is like the natural, like I'm just gonna sit here and look pretty and like magnetize Mars is like the wait, but you gotta do something about it and like do, do, do, do, do.

So Lauren, maybe the issue here isn't so much the Venus. Maybe it's like the Mars going to overdrive in that sixth house way. 'cause it's like the daily worker, right? So you can set that boundary within yourself if you notice yourself like driving the car literally, so to speak and go like, Nope, I've already initiated, I'm gonna pause here.

I'm not gonna let my Virgo Mars like overact.

Virgo Mars, I could be wrong, but we have two here, Lauren and Jackie. I, I did notice they like overdo everything, like over communicate, over fix, over whatever. And, and that's, that's what makes you really good in your career. That's the thing. So Angela was telling me this right before this call, but Mars, actually, I forgot to say the, the negative octave of Mars is the control freak.

It's the one that the like does all the action, right, which is great, but then if you overdo it, you become a control freak. So within your own Mars placement in that house and you guys wrote down keywords for your house, ask yourself, am I a control freak in this house for your Mar's house?

Maybe your masculine's like in the overdrive stop and actually. Neptune does trigger you, right? Because it's that gremlin that says, go get this thing. It could also push Mars to be more of a control freak a little bit.

So it's, it's, you know, we like to, because we're trying to simplify the concepts. I'm walking you guys through, like side by side, house by house, but in reality, all these placements, they like dance together. You know, they're all like interacting with each other and paying off each other. That's why it's important to get to the root of your subconscious drives so that you can see how your personal planets are kind of overcompensating from a trigger that's coming from somewhere else.

But Lauren, uh, does that make sense about the, the Virgo Myers and the sixth house? Yeah. Okay, great.

Any other volunteers?

Carlos. Yeah. Um, so I desire, uh, so my Venus is an Aries in the second house, so I desire independence and courage in my foundation and resources. Uhhuh Mars is in cancer and fifth house. I am driven by my memories and feelings in my interests in how I play, and then my Neptune is in my Itil. I have a blind spot in my allies and escaping to my happiness and hope and hopes and dreams.

Okay. How do you relate to that? I relate in terms of now that Neptune is translating my second house, uh, want to be, I've always been more of an independent person, uh, in terms of, and trying to be more self-reliant and just like having my own. The pathway for my career, um, my Mars sign. Um, so I, I am so technically I should be, uh, should be more like spontaneous and more, uh, but I, I think I re, I regress with my Mars sign in Cancer.

So before I take any initiative, I look at what's occurred in the past, um, and kind of relates to like what other in interests I have outside my career or like personal interests, um, kind of relating to what I've done beforehand. Um, so I, I guess just kind of going, tying it back to, uh, becoming a little more spontaneous and getting outta my comfort zone.

And then with my Neptune sign, being in my 11th house is always, is, um. I, I've tend to focus more about like what's been more my ambition, my ambitions and hopes and dreams because I've, I tend to not understand when, who are my true friends or, or in different situations. Like I've have had blind spots just by the way I am.

Um, so I, I sometimes I do attract people that are really just have, uh, just have some type of competition when I'm just focusing on my own things and that kind of like diverts to like not really understanding who are my friends or not, or allies. Yeah. Also, because you have this des deep desire for connection and community, maybe it might derail you from your professional goals because you're like, well, I wanna be seen and accepted.

Yeah. And if I'm like a, like a sore nail sticking out, then I lose my community. So maybe the story again, that's how Neptune derails you, right? So you gotta focus more on your Venus in the second house that says, go do the thing that you love no matter what people say. No, that's true. And it's, it's interesting you brought that point because as, as a, as a child, I always moved a lot so in, in, in a way.

Like, and I've always been like a person that's good with anybody, but I always feel like I've stuck out from any type of group. So I've had different friend, uh, I've had groups from different, like just friend groups, but I always stuck out. So in a way, like lately, like the past couple years, it's just like kind of refocusing on like, Hey, I'm always gonna stick out anyway, that might as well just do what I do.

And then whoever wants to be around, then I as well, uh, they can stick around. If not, I'm not, I'm not gonna, I dunno. This whole people pleasing on like, being accepted about my group. It is basically just creating my own group in a way, by the way, how I am. Yep. E exactly. Perfect. That's, yeah, so that makes sense with your childhood and, and how you, uh, live through life through all your locational changes.

Yeah. The, the more I talk about this, and the more I speak about this, I think Venus is really important here. It's actually very key, more than Mars, I would say, because like I said, Mars can kind of make you look a control freak. Um, so as it relates to your goals, if you're like, ah, like, I'm not getting that, like, what's going on?

Your Mars can flare up and it further pushes away what you want not, and I'm, I'm a big believer of like, be authentic. Like don't hide who you are. But I think it's also important to borrow help from Venus during those times. Like I said, focusing on that, um, this thing. Element, if you notice yourself getting triggered and getting really derailed from your goals, you know, tapping into these, these elemental energies and getting super crystal clear on your original mission, right? So for example, if you're not getting that promotion or you feel like this guy or this girl's not texting you back, it's easy to get, like, you know, fearful, right? But then if you tap into this and, and this is kind of connected to like self-regulation a little bit too, then you don't get caught up in the 3D reality of like, why, what, what's wrong with it?

Like, why is everything going south? And instead bring back to, well, it doesn't matter what's going on on the outside because I want this and I feel this and I'm gonna do this no matter what kind of talking abstract. But I hope that makes sense. Um. We are out of time, but any gut reactions, comments, feedback? Was this helpful? Was this, is this sort of like getting things flowing a little bit? What do you guys think? I do have a question. I was just wondering, like, if you are operating in your true, authentic self, in your true essence, do these signs and placement really actually matter?

Um, and do they not hinder you if you're really operating in your true, true essence? I feel like when you are operating your true essence, this comes to you very intuitively. Hmm. Like this is like the promised land you eventually get to, I believe. And if it feels super foreign to you, that means that you've, you've kind of been conditioned to not be yourself.

So, um. I mean, I can only speak from my perspective, but I, but I've seen this from my students too. Like, I have Aquarius, uh, Venus Mars in my sixth house. If I listen to anybody else's out there on like how to go get after what I want, I would've ended up nowhere because, um, it's similar to, to Jack and Lauren with a Vego Mars, right?

Like Aquarius, Venus Mars is like, it's, it's kind of in its detriment. It's not very good. But the way I'm living my life right now and the way I've gotten to where I've got to, it's very, it, it's lived out to be very much like that, like Aquarius, uh, Venus, Mars, and Sixth House, like to the t to the absolute T.

So I think you just have to trust and believe that when you are being authentic, you are going to be living your chart a little bit, like the qualities of it, at least.

Thank you. Now that said, there's always a higher OC from a lower octave. This is why you see like social media, like pop astrology on social media. Like oh, like Gemini, Venus are like cheaters. Yeah. That's the lower octave. You don't have to be that. You could be the higher octave gen, Gemini, Venus too. So, um, there's always a choice you can make within that same sign.

Like could evolve on, evolved, that type of thing. Right? Like Virgo placements, rising moon venous Mars. You could be super, you know, anal or it could be fussy and dotting. It could literally manifest in two different ways.

Okay. Cool. Any other, uh, comments, questions, feedback? Could you just go back to the sign slide? 'cause I think I missed one that's throwing me off. No problem. We can, we can also send this out by the way. I realized. So, um, don't feel like you have to get this all down. So what I want you guys to do as homework, 'cause next week we're gonna switch into, I can't remember, it's either human design or we're going through dimensions, but either one, I want you guys to, uh, pay attention to everything you wrote down today, the formula that you wrote down, Venus, Mars, Neptune, and like really just like, let it marinate.

Just, just and be super honest with yourself. Like think about literal examples throughout life when you got derailed because of Neptune and moving forward, how you would do things differently. The other exercise I encourage you guys to do is think about movie characters. Pick your favorite movie character.

Imagine what their Neptune placement is like, you know? Um. Uh, like Batman for example, from Dark Knight. What's his Neptune placement? What's like this, this, he probably has Neptune in his fourth house, to be honest, right? Like he has a lot of family wound. So his real goal, like his actual mission in life is to actually, I don't know, I save Gotham or whatever.

So he probably has Venus Mars in like 10th or sixth, but he keeps getting derailed by the Neptune. And the fourth, you can do these mental model exercises, right? Every time you watch a movie, you notice a character getting derailed, right?

That's their Neptune placement. And then you as a viewer, you're like, don't do that. Don't fall for that. Again. That's what you have to start doing for you.

Oh dimensions. Okay, great. All right, cool. So, um, thank you so much for your time and attention and energy. We'll send these slides out. I'll be completely honest, I, I threw some information on there that is brand new. So if I sounded like speaking nonsense, I apologize, but it sounds like it landed. And, uh, any follow up questions about your chart, especially Naly, you can ask Alana.

Um, and she's gonna walk you through your portal anyway, so it's all gonna kind of come together with where you live too. Yeah. Okay. Thank you so much and I'll see you guys in the next class. Bye.
