Feng Shui 2026

KEY TAKE AWAYS:

- At the start of the lunar new year the energies in our home change. This is described by the Lo Shu Square which is released by Chinese Astrologers every year.
- This year's chart applies from February 17, 2026 → February 5, 2027.
- We can balance the energies in our home by adding or removing items corresponding to elements, and astrocartography.

Tip: clear clutter in your space as the first step.
