REAL ESTATE NUMEROLOGY

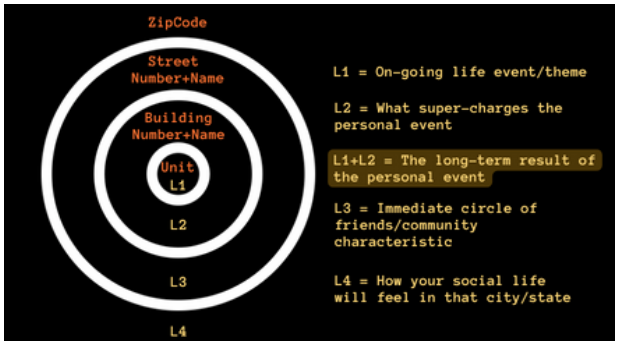
KEY TAKE AWAYS

Energy of Your Address

- House numbers carry specific energies that can influence the home's atmosphere and the experiences of those living there (e.g., a "1" fosters independence).
- Pop-numerologist will just tell you to pay attention the numbers, but you have to convert the alphabets as well. And, there are 4 levels to calculating the address.
- Below, calculate the L1, L2, L3, and L4 of your home. This is Pheydrus secret-sauce.
- What you should care the MOST about is L1+L2 (Apt/Condo), or L3 (House). Read "Pro-Tip."
- Choosing a house number that aligns with personal or family goals can support harmony & success.

AUTOMATIC CALCULATOR »

This was built by a Pheydrus engineer. Try it, but also do your own calculation (below), as global addresses have nuances that we may not have been able to capture.



Meaning of the Numbers:

1. masculine, independent, direct, leader, entrepreneurship
2. feminine, partnership, balance, peaceful, good for love
3. social, network, friendships, "3's a crowd", cheating/infidelity
4. money (getting out of survival mode), stability, security, responsibility, depression, closed-off
5. sudden change, travel, movement, chaos, pattern-breaking
6. family, pets, romance, intimacy, cheating/infidelity
7. spirituality, creativity, artistic
8. money (but can't keep it), karma, power, privacy, depression
9. wisdom, growth, mastery, shamanic journey, potentially serious illness if unprocessed emotions exist

Pro Tip: If you live in a HOUSE, you probably don't have a unit or a building number. So your L3 is the most significant. If you live in an Apartment/Condo, your L1+L2 is the most important (you will have both a unit and a building name). Finally, always go with your LEGAL address.

1. Break down your addresses - click here to convert the ALPHABETS into numbers

Unit Number (L1)	Don't include 'st', 'nd', 'rd' & 'th' Building Number+Name (L2)	Don't include the word 'street', 'road', 'ave' etc Street Number+Name (L3)	Zip/Post Code (L4)	Use Chinese Zodiac Year building was built
Example: Unit 4 Astonia 126 W 80th St, New York, NY 10024, USA
4 = 4	Astonia + 126 ➡ 22 + 9 = 31 ➡ 3+1 = 4 Don't include directions e.g. SW, W etc	80 ➡ 8 + 0 = 8	10024 ➡ 1 + 2 + 4 = 9
Example: 32 Wallaby Road, Sydney, New South Wales, 2000
0	32 ➡ 3 + 2 = 5	Wallaby ➡ 17 1 + 7 = 8	2000 ➡ 2

2. Interpret what these levels mean to you. How is L1, L2, L3, L4 manifesting in your life right now?

L1 - Daily/Life theme (Unit)	L2 - Catalyst for your life (Building Number+Name)	L1+L2 - Long-term result of the personal event	L3 - Community theme (Street Number+Name)	L4 - Social life theme (ZipCode)
4: Focusing on saving and working hard. Feelig closed-off.	4: Being given a lot of responsibility. A higher-paying job or high-profile client signing up.	8: Making a lot of money, but having a hard time maintaining the wealth I make no matter what I do. Feeling depressed.	8: My entire community is relatively wealthy, but very closed-off and difficult to get to know.	Very spiritual, "serious," elevated social life but with heavy undertones/themes.

REAL ESTATE NUMEROLOGY

Energy of Your Address

KEY TAKE AWAYS

- In numerology, house numbers carry specific energies that can influence the home's atmosphere and the experiences of those living there (e.g., a "1" fosters independence).
- Choosing a house number that aligns with personal or family goals can support harmony, success, or creativity.

3. Design cures for your home.

L1: Add a number to add to your L1 to give you your ideal energy. Add to your front door.
L1 + L2: Add a word with Chaldean Numerology to add to L1 + L2 to give you your goal energy. Add this word to any wall.

Tip: Break down master numbers e.g. 11➡1+1 = 2

Example: I'm in a 6, but I want a 1, I will add a 5 L1:	Example: I'm in 5 but want to be in 11 -> Add BOUGIE which adds to 6 L1 + L2:

4. For L3 and beyond, bring in the energy of cities, etc. Add in the cities of your best astrocartography locations in strategic locations using Feng Shui as your guide to bring in these energies.

Bonus: check the zodiac year that your home is built & see if your zodiac year is compatible. I.e., if youo're a "horse," you would not be compatible with a "rat" home.

THANK YOU & GOODBYE

Releasing past lessons

KEY TAKE AWAYS

- When we move homes we move into a new energy. It's important to pay respect to the past lessons and learnings from your old home to release old patterns.
- To do this, we can conciously breakdown our lessons and identify our behaviours & mastery from them.

1. Based on your L1, L2, L3, L4 - what were the energetic lessons from these spaces?

L1 - Daily/Life theme (Unit)	L2 - Catalyst for your life (Building Number+Name)	L1+L2 - Long-term result of the personal event	L3 - Close community theme (Street Number+Name)	L4 - Social life theme (ZipCode)

Now that we've identified the gifts & patterns from our old homes, it's time to say "thank you" and "goodbye" to the lessons of our past home.

3. Write a 'thank you and goodbye' letter to the lessons and experiences of the themes of your past home. Click here for sample letter prompts for each number.

Bonus: create a plan on how you will leverage these past lessons to help you tap into the best vibration of the numerology of your new home.

Tip: You can also check your compatibility with L1 + L2 or even the life/day path of the people you surround yourself with most. Click here for the compatibility sheet.

RELATIONSHIPS NUMEROLOGY

Reflection & Attracting Aligned Connections

KEY TAKE AWAYS

- We can use numerology in relationships to understand the energetic contracts of connections and partnerships.
- We can attract the right relationships in our life to achieve our goals by being intentional about the vibration we want to call in.

1. Calculate your life path & birth day number.

Life Path:	Birth Day Number:

In relationships of any kind, we can gain a deeper understanding of how a relationship will unfold or the themes involved using numerology.

If we have 2 people, P1, and P2.

- P1 Birthday Number + P2 Birthday Number
- P1 Life Path Number + P2 Life Path Number

All of these numbers have challenges and gifts associated with them. Each number combination also has a unique compatibility which you can click here to view numerology compatibility.

2. Relfect on past and present connections - what relationship numerology did you have with them & what were the lessons you learnt through these connections?

P1: Birth Day	P1: Life Path	Compatibility (Birth Day Number)	Compatibility (Life Path)	Challenges & Gifts from this relationship (birth day and LP)

3. Consider your goals. What numerology do you want to align with to achieve them stratgeitcally? What are the key challenges & lessons? Do you already know someone who has this you can speak to?

e.g. I'm a life path 8, and I want to become a business leader (1). I need to find a 2 life path to add to 11.

Goal	Numerology aligned with that goal	Aligned Life Path to Find (goal numerology minus my life path)	Aligned Birth Day Number (goal numerology - my birth day number)

Bonus: You can alsoc check the compatibility of your life path + L1 + L2 of an address to underatand another layer of lessons that will play out in that location.

Bonus: What is the new vs old numerology of your name if you have changed it?

Bonus: Write thank you & goodbye letters to past connections - reflecting on the expeirences & wisdom you learned.
