ENERGY HYGIENE

Clarity

KEY TAKE AWAYS:

- Because energy is 3 parts (environments, planets, and you) you have to hit on ALL cylinders to clear energy.
- Spiritual mastery and/or manifestation mastery essentially boils down to how quickly you can:
  - Understand what's blocking your energy, clearing it, and then:
  - Finding a new paths/ideas/people that are exciting enough to "pull" you out of the funk and elevate your emotions.

ENERGY HYGIENE

Hint: Journal any other ideas you have, and also discuss with your accountability buddy!

ENVIRONMENT

- Clear any clutter in the home. Throw away everything you don't need.
- Make at least one room in your home beautiful.
- If there's any upsetting or emotionally-charged reminders (pictures, trinkets, furniture, etc.), throw it away or donate it.
- Regularly palo santo your home.

BODY

- Make sure you're getting enough:
  - Sunlight (vitamin D)
  - Omega 3 (fish)
  - Exercise
  - Sleep
- Find an activity that puts you in the "flow" state.
  - Even if this isn't exercise, you can garden, clean, create, etc.
- Try breathwork
- Try qigong
- Have a routine. Create a schedule. Create a daily system, practices, and habits that ground you.

BRAIN/ENERGY

- Practice getting into the theta/alpha state by using frequency music (I put 5hz on as background music).
  - If you get sudden ideas, inspirations, etc., write them down.
- Curate a feel-good playlist.
- Watch the words you use (i.e., "I run a a small business." Guess what, your business will stay small).
- Visualization exercises:
  - Imagine you're protected by a white bubble.
  - When you enter/leave your home, imagine there's a white light "filter" at the door.
- Challenge yourself to learn new things.

KEY TAKE AWAYS:

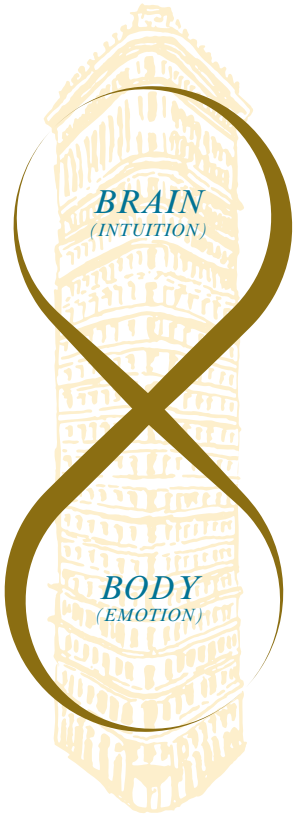
Tools of the Soul:

- Emotions are the creators of our reality.
- Intuition is the interpreter of our reality.
  - This is why when you are emotionally wounded or vulnerable, it's difficult to see reality objectively.
  - Also why if you "live" in the past (aka old emotions), you keep repeating patterns/creating the same reality.

How this relates to the Penthouse:

- It's hard to get directions from the Soul (upper chakras) if you sit in "stuck" old energy aka emotions.
- If you have mastery over your emotions and your intuition, and there is coordination between the two, you can shoot up the Penthouse (aka your reality can shift).

YOUR REALITY = FEEDBACK LOOP



BRAIN: NOT ALL ABOUT "INTELLECT"

Interpreter, arbiter of truth, compass, map, lie detector, etc. Can be "thrown" off by emotions. Language: brainwaves.

BODY: NOT JUST ABOUT MOVING

Creative building block, OG manifestation tool, "storage" system of beliefs, memories, and old emotions. Language: emotions.

EARTH & CHAKRAS

Clarity Continued

KEY TAKE AWAYS:

- Collectively, Earth has entered the Age of Aquarius.
- Individually, this means we've moved up to Chakras 8+ (link).
  - Translation: humans are more "psychic" than ever before. We care about having a purpose, meaning, connection to one another & with higher intelligence.
- Best way to understand how we've moved "up" the chakras is visualizing going "up" the Penthouse in our lives.
  - 1st floor is survival mode: sirens, pedestrians, smell, etc.
  - Penthouse is thriving mode: city-view, quietness, calm, etc.

GETTING TO THE PENTHOUSE

Hint: Remember, Alignment is about pulling different parts of you together to reach the Soul's goal. The Penthouse is the Soul's goal. The questions below are often common, spiritual "aha moments" that people have in order to reach the top floor. If you answered "yes" to any of the below, that is the "part" of you that has to "wake up" to answer to the Soul.

LEVELS TO UNLOCK TO GET TO PENTHOUSE:

1st floor: Does your tribe have "control" over you? Why/why not?

2nd floor: Do you keep unhelpful friendships/activities? Why/why not?

3rd floor: Do you struggle with self-trust? Or standing-up for yourself?

4th floor: Do you have emotional memories/wounds that are still charged?

5th floor: Do you need evidence to make choices? Or do you "go for it?"

6th floor: Do you focus on fire after fire, or on how prevent future fires?

7th floor: Do you often dwell on the past or the future?

PRO-TIP #1

- 1st floor issues can be explained by the natal chart (aka your energy). For example, if you have intense moon-pluto placements in your chart, you may have had a difficult relationship with your parents.

PRO-TIP #2

- Meditation is a good start to help the energies flow between chakras. However, the questions above are manifestations of blocked energies. This means you can tangibly unblock yourself by making choices. This is why "creating the future" is really "creating yourself" by doing things differently, or in a new way.

WORKSHEET PENTHOUSE

KEY TAKE AWAYS

- Penthouse is a metaphor for your ideal life. Before we go into Feng Shui or Astrocartography, it's important to first take a step back and start from what your Soul wants.
- The key is determining what YOUR penthouse looks like to YOU. 9 codes below are the common qualitative penthouse features that we can measure ourselves against, to assess whether or not we are truly achieving abundance across the aboard.

WHAT DOES THE TOP FLOOR LOOK LIKE?

Rate yourself from scale of 1-10, 1 being "I don't feel abundant in this area at all" to 10 being "I feel like I'm overflowing in this area of life." And then write the block. PS. It's rare that anyone rate themselves a 10!

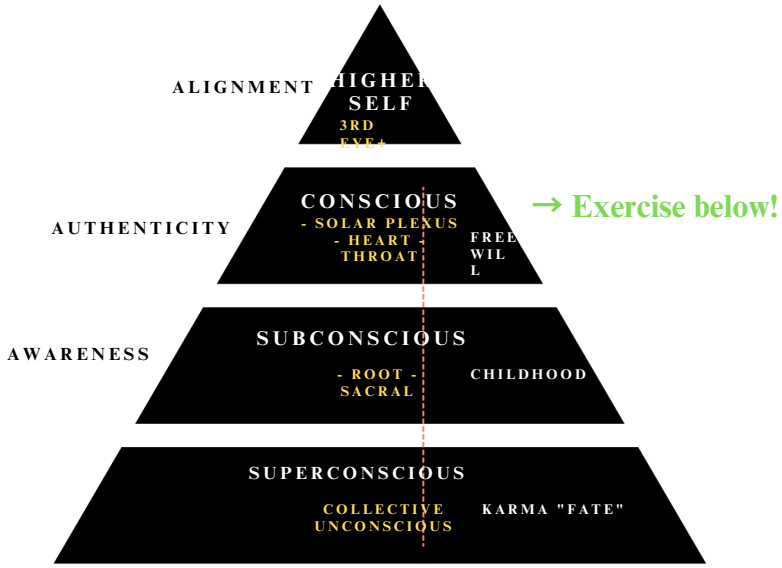
KEY TAKE AWAYS

- The bridge between your subconscious mind and your heart, and ultimately your higher-self--is your solar plexus:
  - Subconscious: beliefs, how you were programmed as a child
    - The "3D", root-chakra stage
  - Conscious: confidence, personal-power, self-esteem, etc.
    - The "4D", solar-plexus stage
    - Free will choice
  - Higher-Self: living your purpose, "being" instead of "doing
    - The "5D", third-eye chakra and up



HOW DO YOU SEE YOURSELF?

We just examined family conditioning (subconscious on the left). Now let's challenge ourselves a bit further: How do you see yourself? What do you value?

What's stopping you?

SOLAR-PLEXUS SELF-INQUIRY!

If money didn't matter...

3 things you'd try / work on for fun!

World would benefit from...

Problems/solutions/ideas you think about a lot!

People come to me for...

I have a hard time "going for it," because...

Perfectionism? Self-judgement? Failure?

KEY TAKE AWAYS

- Astrology holds clues to "wounds" you are here to gain self-mastery over:
- Sign: Style of the energy of the planet
- House: Where in your life the energy will manifest
- Planet: Core emotion/root desire
  - Chiron: Your emotional trigger point / "wound"
  - Uranus: Source of that "wound" and where you experienced unpredictability, change, and chaos
  - Saturn: Where you are both restricted AND disciplined
- Incarnation Cross: Your life plot / lesson on Earth.

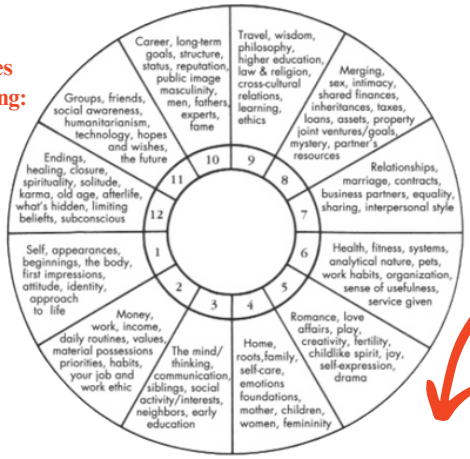
Steps:

1. Go here to find the planets, houses, and the signs
2. Go here to find your incarnation cross meaning (do copy/paste+ctrl+find)

Houses Meaning:



EXAMPLE:

Uranus is in my fourth house (roots/family) in the sign of Sagittarius (travel, philosophy, optimism, etc).

I long for stability in my family/roots because we always moved growing up.

INCARNATION CROSS:

Planet +	House +	Sign =	My core wounds that I need to self-heal, are...
Chiron
Uranus
Saturn

VISUALIZATION

Based on your findings, how can you heal the "trigger" points? This can be a symbolic image, or a mantra.

Example: I have a red, floating balloon that I carry with me everywhere that represents "home." Wherever I go, my home travels with me.

KEY TAKE AWAYS:

- Given what you know from the prior worksheet, having fears or triggers on your true desires are normal. AND...
- ...We are given scripts at a very young age on how to live life, and what goals to aim for - but society's goals aren't always our Souls's goals.
- We can transcend both environmental & planetary influences. Define for YOURSELF what you want in different areas of your life:
  - What does it look like?
    - Is there anything you can quantify?
  - How would you feel if you had it?

MY LIFE IN THESE AREAS WOULD LOOK LIKE....

Hint: "Goal" can be a habit, routine, or quality. For example, physical goal isn't necessarily weight. It can include learning new sports, walking daily, etc.
