The Akashic Records:
The Akashic Records are believed to be a compendium of all human events, thoughts, words, emotions, and intent ever to have occurred in the past, present, or future. It's considered a vast library of information that exists beyond time and space. People believe accessing the Akashic Records can provide insights into past lives, current challenges, and potential futures. It's often used for spiritual guidance, healing, and personal growth. Accessing the Akashic Records can be done through meditation, prayer, or working with a trained practitioner.

The ability to access information about yourself from this "higher place" will help you have a more macro-view of your goals, failures, and success.

All these tools have one thing in common:

Grounding, protecting, and clearing your energy.

It's easy for a Hero to get sucked back into their old life, falling into the same habits and ideas.

That's why so many people revert back to old patterns after a spiritual awakening.

The Akashic Records Video Transcript:
📍 Welcome to the first member event. Initially, I was thinking about having a member event kick off next week with me, but I really wanted to give my early members access to Robin who was with us today, who is really, really, really gifted and really amazing at what she does.

She can access Akashic records, which is some people may call it psych abilities, but the thing is, we all have it. We all have a connection with Akashic records. So she's going to teach us, uh, a little bit about that today, as well as like, take us through some exercises.

So without further ado, I'll hand it over to Robin. I'm Robin Richardson, and I'm gonna help you guys. I'm gonna talk to you guys about accessing the Akashic records.

I am a Akashic record master teacher. I've been doing this a long time. I have classes. You I've taught classes for years with people around the world.

And I'm so happy to be here to share my, um, understanding of the Akashic records with you and get you all connected because you all are in a more deliberate and conscious way so that you can begin to access them for yourself from a completely spiritual and deep place. So let me just tell you a little bit about the Akashic records.

Akashic, the word Akashic comes from the Sanskrit word, meaning boundless space. So if we think about boundless space, what does that mean? Well, to me it means it's, it includes everything. It's all inclusive. We live in an all inclusive universe, so we also, it it's also the Akashic records are a storehouse of information about every single one of you.

Since you began to be, you, you could call it God's memory. If you'd like, and it holds all the information about every individual who has ever lived, but it's more than just a storehouse of events. It's also an energy field that contains every deed, every word, every feeling, every thought. And I want you to pay attention to this next word intent that has occurred any time in history.

That's a lot of information in boundless space, but boundless space is boundless so much more than that, even that they're interactive. So we interact with this every single moment of our. Of our lives from the minute we have incarnated into physical, we, there is this record, even in this group today, the Akashic records holds a record for all of us to be here.

So the next time you get on an airplane or you go to the grocery store, I want you to kind of think about all, all the people around you. You're all included in this event, in the Akashic records, that's kind of mind blowing. I, I do that when I'm in the grocery store, I'm like, oh, all of us have decided to come here at this time together to do what to shop, but we all are interacting with each other, whether we know it or not.

And I'm sure you understand that so they can contain the stimulus for every archetypal symbol or mythic story that has ever deeply touched the patterns of human behavior and experience. They have been the inspiration for dreams and inventions. So think about that. Like when you're creating something, they could, they come from the Akashic records.

Or if you'd like to think even broader terms, you could call it God's energy, the universe collective conscious, collect cosmic mind. These are all words that can be interchanged with the Akashic records. There are a portion of divine mind and they are unbiased. So think about this for a second. This kind of blew my mind.

What does unbiased mean? Well, for me, that means that every single thing that happens in this universe isn't good or bad. It just is as human beings, we judge judge it as good or bad right or wrong, but in the Akashic records and when you start to access this deliberately and you become very neutral in this energy, you'll hear things from people and.

and you won't be shocked. You'll just be like, okay, this is their experience. And you'll give them feedback or you'll give yourself feedback and you won't judge yourself. It's very, it's a very cool energy to be in this energy can guide. You can educate, you can give you, um, information about your patterns.

It could give you spiritual guidance. It could give you information about romance, about careers, about, well, we talked about PA about past lives, even. So it, it houses everything. So any idea that has not come into this universe yet is still houses there. It's just up to us to be able to receive it or think beyond what we are already thinking.

They, the records are non-denominational. So they don't really have any kind of religion attached to it, but they are referred to in every ancient teaching. In the Bible, it's called the book of life in the Torah. It's the book of knowledge in Budd, Buddhism literature. It calls it nature's memory. And so on.

There's so many different references in each different religious or spiritual texts.

So one of the things about this is when we think over, we keep thinking and keep thinking and keep thinking about something that also becomes a piece of the Akashic record. So often, when is why we talk about monitoring, how we think and changing our thought patterns so that we can experience something different and more importantly, or as importantly intention, what are my intentions?

So as you access this information deliberately, when you think about what is my intention. for this. So for example, in this, in this group, you're you were given a question. What is your intention when you're about what you would like to receive? What would you like to access? So keeping in mind what your intentions are, this is an amazing tool of transformation.

And I can only tell you for my own life that I, I mean, I know that I'm accessing this constantly, but it has changed my life from a limited thinker to a broader thinker, to more creative, to more ease and joy in my life. Why? Because I don't focus so much now on the past and I don't focus on the future.

It helps me to stay in the now, which is where we want to create from. So the Akashic records can help you to like, get yourself into that oneness of who we, who you are and remember who you are, because we're not. Robin. We're not, you know, we're just all together as one. And anything that we do think say, or intend impacts all of us, and that's like one of the, even more mind blowing things is like being mindful of how you are treating yourself, talking to yourself or other people because you impact them the waves of energy go out.

Not that we're perfect at them. by any means. So I want you guys to practice because I love experiential. I, I cannot stand going to places and having to listen to somebody talk I want you all to participate and because of my, uh, wonderful, uh, technical logical skills, and I didn't get my screen to share, um, I want you to take out your journals and if you hadn't had a moment, um, to really take a look at this question, I want, um, maybe you could put it in the chat or I could put it in the.

Um, what characteristics do I possess to create? What I want right now is the question we're gonna work with. And I want you just from your own knowing before I give you a little tip on how to actually intentionally access the Akashic records. I want you to write this question down into your journal, and I want you just to answer from your knowing, but I want, I don't want you to write long sentences.

I really want you to be able to receive the information. So what characteristics do I have right now that I, that, you know, help me with my success. Boom, boom, boom. Just write down what you get. So if you would like to take a moment to do that, I wanna give you a couple minutes to do that because then we're gonna have a little bit fun.

I'm gonna treat you. I'm gonna teach you really quickly how to access the records intentionally.

So what characteristics do I possess to create what I want right now?

Now, one of the tips here is if you, um, are trying to like force this, you know, I want you to just kind of pay attention to what you're, you know what you're thinking, what you're feeling in your body as a resistance is there? Oh my God, I have no characteristic. You know, I want you to kinda like notice what's going on for you.

And you may have a short list. You may have a long list, but right now I just want you to write down really quickly what you, what you get.

So often we like, think about the stuff that isn't working in our life or the things that are missing in our life. And we forget all about the characteristics that we have that like we have right now that can.

Ambition. Awesome. So think about characteristics or attributes or talents. You can add those kind of things too. And so when you're complete, when you feel complete with that, um, just put, raise your hand up.

And so I want you to separate, maybe get another page in your journal or your notebook. And I want you to write this question again and when you're ready, I want you to like, just take a moment, kind of notice where you're at. If you're sitting on a chair, Just kind of notice where you're at and take a deep breath. And I want you to put your hands over your heart for a moment. Cause this is where the Akashic records are housed. They're in the heart energy.

I love people's answers. They'll put it in the chat. And I want you to like, just say your name. You can just, you can say it out loud or you can put it, you know, say it in your mind. And I want you to take another deep breath and I want you to say, I am accessing my Akashic records right now and say your name, and then I'm going to say this question, and then you're just gonna write what you get. And I don't want you to C it, I want you to just write what you get. What characteristics do I possess? To create what I want right now.

I want the answer to come from the Akashic records and I'm open to receiving.

If you're striving for something, then just keep putting your hands over your heart. I don't want you to have any kind of force. I want you to just receive like a cup that's okay. A letter's fine. Do you have, this is a great, great thing that you're putting in there. Angela. I, if you have a feeling, put a feeling, if there's a color, put a color.

That's great. I love, I love this. Sylvia's got compassion, insight, guidance. Perfect.

calmness and nervousness. Okay. Okay. And you guys actually write down your journal too. What comes to you? Document it? And just a quick side note, uh, the hand has like thousands and thousands of checker points. And when you put it over your heart, you're activating the heart chakra. Absolutely. So that's why we're doing this.

And we're using your name because in this life you have this. So this life has the energy of your Akashic record.

Hmm. All intentional limitless. Love it. I got a circle. Oh, interesting. Okay. Keep, keep a note of that, Vanessa. I'm curious about that.

Rena's got strength, love and grit. Oh, oh, okay. Nicole.

Okay, great. Just take a note about that.

Okay. So people have been sharing in the chat and I love that teachable. Mallable adaptable. Did anybody have an anybody have trouble? Accessing anything. Did anybody have any feelings in their body that or thoughts going on? Oh, I feel like I have a lot of attributes, but I feel like none of them are good enough.

Honed enough to give me the success. But you have these attributes. I want you to, like,

I want you to know that it's coming, that it's your ego and your personality. That's getting in the way. Oh, cat wonder wonderful humility, respect, love joy. Okay. So you've got a lot. So here you are. Okay. So I wanna ask people and you know, I, you know, this is a safe space. We've already talked about that. Um, does anybody wanna share if there was a difference between their first list to their second.

You'll have to say your name and then tell us what, how about, how about we, uh, just, uh, use the emoji to raise all your hands and I'll call it the name one by one, and then you can unmute yourself when your name is called. Yeah. Sylvia let's go. Yeah, Sylvia.

Okay. We got unmute Sylvia. The most said phrase. Got it. Yes. Um, the first thing I noticed is that it is definitely different than what I wrote down. I came up from kind of like. You know, I had prided being gritty and resilient and powerful and energetic and passionate. And, and that's like, what I wrote out.

Like, I know this was driving force for me today that I'm aware of. But then when I put my hand on my heart, it was more, it was like softer. It was gentle that it was more coming from a place of, of love. And it also made me a little bit uncomfortable because there's some vulnerability with it, which I don't like, it's almost like exposing the weakness.

So that was really interesting to me. I caught that almost immediately, that it was different than what, you know, what I was putting thought towards the words I wanted to put. Wow. Wow. That's so powerful. Thank you so much for sharing that. That's that's typically what happens. Anybody else would like to share Angela?

Hey. Um, so when I first wrote it down, I instantly was thinking about my career and qualities that I had to advance in. It just kind of harsh of me. And then when we actually did the exercise, like what Sylvia said, it got so much softer. Like that was the only way to describe it. And I got the word that weird S and then I also got, um, wonder, which was interesting and which was completely different than me going like creativity.

I can do this and art, I can do this and that, and instead is just wonder and yeah, I love it. Thank you so much for sharing that I want you, like, I hope everybody's sort of noticing here. And does anybody else wanna. Vanessa. Hey guys. So I got like a circle the second time. And the first time I felt like my answers were super rigid, you know, like I knew, like I was like, you know, strong willed, willing to whatever, you know, like, you know, those things you see in a resume, but things you know about yourself at the same time.

And then something that's like, I think, I feel like that's a very square thing. You know, being in like a corporate industry type thing. And then the second I was like, wow, these, the characters sticks I actually have are like more of those of a circle that are more softer around edges. And I think that's the best way to describe it.

I couldn't find the words as much as I did. The like picture of it. That makes sense. yeah, it totally makes it totally makes sense. And, and I, and what I'm noticing is that when we're doing it from our egos, our personalities, we have our belief systems that we have our, you know, all these things that, that come to play there, there's nothing wrong with that, by the way.

But when we access the Akashic records, we do find these deeper, more connected characteristics that we really must access, because that's what it is a wonder, a loved wonder. I mean, that's your superpower right now, your ability to wonder about things that'll help you succeed. The soft edges that that's, what's going to help you succeed.

How well as we go forward into the Akashic records and more of what I would love to offer you is I'm gonna help you craft questions so that you get the most out of this energy. The it'll be expansive energy that doesn't come from our personalities that are not expansive. you know, can we hear from one more person?

Sorry. Uh, Robin, absolutely. Absolut. Angel Marie has your hand up. Oh, I love it. Let's hear from angel angel.

Okay. For me it was more, the second one was, I don't know if, um, this was the same as being soft, but it was more emotional, like feelings, like love, joy, excitement being silly. That's that's how I came with the second. What was your first part, your first part as the first, the first part, it was, um, authentic, resilient, ambitious, determined, charismatic.

And it was, there was just attributes, I guess. Mm-hmm so this is just an additional one. And then pardon? I'm sorry. I, I cut you off. Go ahead. No, I was just wondering, it would like the second one was more of, um, feelings than the first, um, when we did the first time mm-hmm well, this it's it's great. What you, what you're getting is absolutely.

Everybody's correct. This is, this is one of the things that I want to impress upon you is that be, be open, to be wrong. you know, and none of this is wrong. So, but in our, what, when we go into this next thing and we have 30 people on the line and you know, so I'm kind of thinking that I would either, like, I wanna do a little quick round of, to show you what I want you to do, and then we're gonna do breakout rooms.

So I just want you to be clear about this next exercise. From the Akashic records from your own records. And we, we connect with people all the time, but we can connect with the records for other people through our own. So what I want you to do is use this question and I want you to a, you know, access your record.

So I want you to read for other people. So you have your, your ego personality answers, you have your own knowing, and I want other people to share with you what they get for you. So we could do a quick little round here with anybody that's willing to participate, and I'll let you do it for me if you want you know, and I let's do it that way.

Who would like to answer this question for me? I think this would be great, cuz then I can give you some really good feedback.

Don't be scared. I'm a deep, well, remember you guys, we're all psychic. And um, I just wanna emphasize someone that Robin said earlier, which I think is super powerful. Uh, you can create from a place of love, like heart based energy or from fear, lack ego. And those are two, you, you create a totally different reality based on where you're creating from, which is why this question and this, uh, exercise is super powerful so that you have a way of tapping back into that soul base base.

Yeah. Instead of anything else. So I'm gonna ask the question and, and you know, the whole group can just write down the answer. They got about me. Ask, asking this question and then whoever would like to share their answer would be fabulous. Okay. So group what characteristics do I possess to create what I want right now?

What characteristics do I possess from the Akashic records? Let's go, you guys got this, I know it. And I'm open to receiving so and what, and this is what you get, whatever words pop to you. And while you're doing that, there's no wrong answers. And as a receiver, and this is, I hope you take this little tidbit too, this little pro tip as a receiver. I get to decide if it's true for me. Okay. I get to decide if it is true for me. And maybe you're gonna come up with some really good ones that I've been blinded to.

Bright white light. I'm a warrior that was built for this struggle. Oh, I saw the color white. Perfect compassion. Soft pink intuition, insight, heart compassion, knowledge, fortitude, fearlessness and bountiful. Oh, I like you. I like that one. I like them all. Don't there's some better than other. No, just kidding.

Um, motherly, joyful, soft, warm, strong warrior will white knowledge, openness generosity, empathy, healing, high priestess vibe. Yep. I got the color red and I saw the heart. So I assumed love accessing a heart chakra. Nice kind. Slow to anger. Not easily. Yes. Very much. Oh my gosh. Okay. Christine, with the wonder woman wish I had my mug right here with me. Patience. Yes. Vivid. Anger. Yep. That could be sometimes. Mm-hmm motherly too. I saw a boy. Yes. I have a, I have a son patience. Understanding gentle. Yes. Rena, the kind of person who would have a warm, cozy home to come to guys are great. Altruistic. I love it. See how it see this is, this is wonderful.

And thank you. I am going to receive all of that. I'm gonna claim all of. And I, you know, I'm glad that this is being taped because I, I, I will receive that. And this is what I want you guys to, to do for each other, because there's nothing better than allowing yourself to receive wonderful attributes.

That'll help you succeed. And anger helps me succeed sometimes. So I just, I wanna say that like, none of these adjectives are, are negative. You know, red, I feel PA I have a lot of passion for this gold and, and so the white, the white energy for me, and I'll tell you this, and, and we will, at a future class, we will go through a guided meditation of you meeting your Akashic record guru, whoever, you know, call him the Lords of the Kasha record.

But when I go into the hall of records, I put on. A robe and you will too. And my robe just happens to be white these days. So thank you. thank you for that. All right. So now, now, do you understand what we're gonna do? So you're gonna go in a breakout room. You're gonna take turns, being the person to receive the person who is receiving will ask that question and you all will connect with that energy and give that person the words.

No, no long interpretations. Just the words like you guys did here. Perfect. So that's why, I'm glad you did it for me. Okay. Everybody understand we'll pop in and, and, and make sure you're doing. Um, we have 15 minutes, like, let's just do this 10 minutes. So I don't know how many rooms you could break them out into.

So they have enough time. I'm gonna try to do 10 rooms as three people per room. Okay. And if you get into a room, Robin, just exit out or we, you and I can like exit out and enter and then enter. Yeah. Yeah. So I'll see you guys in like five to six minutes.

We're back. welcome. Welcome back. I hope that was enough time. It was like the speed round does, did, does anybody wanna share their experience? Rena read your hand sign please. Yeah. Um, so no, there was not enough time cuz we were just, we had to kind of like rush to end, but I'm sorry. They, no, it's fine. Like they did me and they did absolutely great. And then we tapped into everybody else and I would say their names and Camille I had, I was, I don't know why I was like, you're either older than I am or we're roughly the same age.

And she's like, well I'm my thirties. And I was like, well I turned 35 next week and she's like, we're the same age. Wow. That's cool. That is dope. That is. Did anybody hear? Uh, so there's no hands right now, but I'm gonna ask a different question. Did anyone get feedback that surprised you in a positive way?

Like really?

If so, what was it? Allie says our group was visual. Okay. So I wanna hear from ally real fast, unless you can't speak Allie cuz of the mic situation. No, that's good. Um, so for our group, um, Nicole had come in a little bit later, so we had to go over with her, like how to access everything. So we were a little short on time, but when we, um, Chantel and I shared what we had seen, um, for, you know, everybody in our group, um, for all of us and I think Nicole did too.

It was, it was all for us. We, we got more of images than we did of of words. That's that? That happens. It definitely happens, especially if you're visual people. Right. I mean, Robin there's people that can smell things, right? Yeah. taste, you know, taste right. Experiences for sure. Uh, we have Chantel raise her hand Chantel.

Yes. It was neat because like you said, I can smell like, like rain before it hits or when a storm is coming. And it's so funny, cuz all says she saw lightning. So I thought that was very interesting. Cause I'm very much, I love it just puts me at, so it was just awesome. I just thought a chair love it. Uh, Vanessa so crazy. Um, they, the two people that read me, they, one of them got green. And one of them saw purple and my childhood room growing up was bright green and purple. So I was like, Louis, that's crazy. That's actually crazy insane. I was like, hold up. That's crazy. Uh, but the other characteristics were like determinations little, these were all characteristics that were like kind of things that I would associate with my younger self, not my, like who so burnt out older post pandemic.

So which are very like kind right now. um, but, um, other than that, I think, no, I think that that was wild. That was very, um, intuitive of them, I guess. Yeah. Yeah. Amazing. Oh, that's, that's just chills the green and purple. That's crazy. And it's also a reminder then for you. Oh yeah. To connect to those, to that, which is really something that.

will bring you whatever success you're looking for, you know, whatever that means to you. Yeah. Connecting with your childhood joy. Yeah. That fun. That fun times. Yeah. Definitely like, you know, maybe journal bit around that. Mm-hmm Jolynn. Um, so I, they could not see me because my camera on my computer does not like functioning with zoom for whatever reason.

Um, but when they, um, but when I. I got to the people who got to me, um, and they started to, um, reform me. One of them had said, oh, I, I feel like you got, you get a lot of like ideas and energy, like at the nighttime, which is completely true. I, I'm a total, my owl. And I feel like my, I, I function 10 times more.

Um, and during the night than I do during the day, like, that's when, like I like have Spurges of ideas or like, um, just my, um, just more active at night than I am throughout the day. And I thought that was really cool, even though they couldn not see me because I'm not, they could not turn my, my face. And none of they're just going off of what they could hear.

Um, and just my name on the screen. yeah, that's, that's the key. Beautiful. The key is to accessing the record. Uh, really quickly. So we start like 10 minutes late. Does everybody have like 15 more minutes? They can stick around. Cause I do have one last housekeeping item before we like wrap that. Cool. All right.

Awesome. Uh, sorry, go ahead, Robin. Okay. So like, you know, I want you to really pay attention to what you received tonight and hold that, like, see what happens in this next, you know, few days for you, uh, refer back to your list, you know, and, you know, remember you have these wonderful characteristics and attributes that you can access.

If you need like a little uplift from the Akashic records, it'll always give you the positive aspects that you, that you need to hear when you need to hear it. So you never need to get it from outside people, just, just so, so you know, and when we go into next month, you know, I will help you craft questions.

And I think it's one of my favorite things to help people with. To make sure that you're getting out of the energy, what you, what you want. And Robin, what's the, what's the importance of, um, crafting a good question. Oh my gosh. I mean, crafting a good question. Just helps you ex expand the energy and get more information and be open further.

Um, a lot of what I, I teach when I'm teaching this course is to come at it like a reporter, be objective don't, you know, don't like notice yourself if you're like wanting an answer to be a certain answer, you know? So these questions just really help open it up. And, you know, if you ever go and see a psychic or even anything, it'll help you to, um, to get the information that you're looking for in a way that's more expanded.

Yeah, you guys, uh, I've done this several times with Robin where I ask her a question and then she'll just come back with let's, let's try to rephrase this. And the purpose of that is to like, like, she was just saying open up the energy so I can get more, not less answers. Mm-hmm also always for your highest good yes.

Better quality. And, and the one thing I want to remind people is like the, the, the Kasha records are never negative. And by that, I mean, we're, it's not judging you. It's not saying you, you, um, you're a bad person, or, you know, it's none of that. It's always coming from that heart center is coming from neutral.

So there's no judgment. And when you start to like, realize that, you know, it's like so free. we're the ones we do the worst to ourselves, you know, and it just working with this energy just helps to be really coming from that place of love and expanded energy and being able to create whatever you want from the record with the records help.

Mm-hmm I'm just also curious before we wrap, how did everyone feel after that exercise? So like, aside from the actual, like words and questions that you got from your peers, like, how did it feel to like your words and questions that, oh, I was like, is that a, is that a television or, um, how did it feel to be seen and also to see others?

Like, is this something that you regularly get to do in your everyday life? I'm assuming the answer is like, not really. Um, but yeah. Can we just popcorn style go around, just shout, like, how did you feel.

Jolynn says it was really cool. They told me to get off my ass. That's funny. I hope it was loving more positive, joyous, confident, imagining. Amazing. Amazing. It's so interesting to pick up on people's energies and you guys, I, I wanna, um, welcoming, so nice feeling. Okay. I wanna emphasize this to you guys. The, the more we meet, the more we gather, the more we're going to really tap into this ability. This is just scratching the surface, like really see this as like an unfolding and a deepening and then expanding.

And you're only going to get more and more proficient at this. The more we meet and the more we connect, cause like, you know, these monthly events are very intentionally designed. Believe it or not. Um, they're almost like billed to be on like stacked on top of one another. So, um, and, and again, like it's really nice to get together and like, share like this and learn and really connect.

Like, I don't know about you guys, but for me, this is so free and still liberating. And it's like a, a nice little way to like unwind at the end of the week. Although it's only Thursday, we have one more day left, but still, um, okay. Question. Does intrusive do intrusive thoughts get recorded and the Akashi records.

Why am I not surprised at your asked of that? Yeah. So the like, yes . So this is why it's really important to have self-awareness and to have the ability to, we have the ability to think cuz we're human beings. So learning how to change those thoughts will change the in. And I wanna say this like change the possibility of a different outcome for you.

So one thing I didn't mention about the records is there's an infinite amount of possibilities for you. So think about that. Like, like you're not, you're not stuck with one. Okay. So if you don't like one, you, you can shift, well, how do we shift? Well, we have to shift our thoughts. We have to shift our intention.

We have to shift our frequency. We, you know, we have to take different actions. That's all a part of. Which, which you're gonna go into right. Robin in the future sessions. Absolutely. Yeah. Yeah. I'm gonna teach you how to manifest too, from the records. Amazing. What do we, how many months are we doing this? as much as you guys want, you guys will be to a good start.

We're up to a great start. The other thing I was gonna say is, so remember how I talked about, um, quantum relationships, electromagnetic buddies. So how'd that feel to like connect with people here today? Like, does anybody here? I actually know each other, other than me, I'm assuming the answer is know, I guess Angela and like Vanessa might know each other or so on and so forth.

Um, I want y'all to connect with one another. I want this to be a living, breathing, thriving community. I want y'all y'all to be like each other's support system, um, myself included. So I already have a community built out. It's like private in discord and, uh, it's kind of nerdy, but there's like 64 different groups based on your human design gates.

So everybody knows their. Right. You have to fill out a survey. Um, your job is to find out your partner, potential partner who has the missing, pardon me, who has the gate that you're missing. So if you're like, whoa, there's a lot of information. Like, what are these gates and how do I use this? Like, don't worry.

Like we have, uh, actually came in, is coming in November. She's human design expert. And she's gonna talk all about this, but in the meantime, let's use that discord forum for all of us to connect. Sounds good. And it's a private section within my ginormous discord and it's just for you guys and you have forever access.

So in order to get access to it, just DM me on discord. So, um, you have to private message me. You don't like at me at a public channel, if that makes sense. So if you're like, I don't have discord, how do I get it? This is, um, my discord link. And also type me a keyword, uh, say member,

I felt like I belong connected and accepted. It's amazing. It's amazing how much the connections are happening randomly. Yes. So please, um, DM me on discord with a word member. That's the only way I can actually give you access to this private human design group. It's so amazing. You guys like, cuz we're gonna learn more about like how to use this information to activate the things in your, in your life that you really wanna like start, you know, moving the needle on based on everyone else's energy.

I feel like everyone hears my people. Awesome. Okay, cool. Do you guys hear those beeps? Those are the discord slacks. Yeah. So, uh, at last but not least the list that you guys wrote in your journal, whether it was from you or the Akashic record or from each other. Uh, take a photo of it with your phone and like share it on Instagram, share it on your story, share it on TikTok, share wherever tag me, tag Robin.

Um, we're gonna talk one a second, like how to find Robin, Robin. And I met through the internet too, by the way. So that was awesome. Um, but I really want you guys to share the love, share the message, like really spread like the positivity with the people that, you know, and be like, Hey, like, look at these words that I got, like from my, like the KA record.

And, um, and then people are gonna ask and be like, what is that? And this is how you really start to live people up into a high level of consciousness by like starting conversations like this. So, you know, commit to those three words to yourself by publicizing it to the extent that you feel comfortable.

Sounds good. Yeah. Amazing. Be your attributes. Yeah. Okay. Um, before we wrap, does anybody have any final questions, comments, reactions.

Let's, let's try to, you know what, I, I kind of thought that an hour might be too short, um, in the future sessions, like, let's try to go up to like an hour and a half if needed, but how does that feel to everyone? And you can drop off early if you'd like, but I just don't know if it's enough time. Yeah. I think that'll be better.

Okay. Great. Awesome. Okay. Well, I guess, I guess that's it. You just question yes. Are gonna have that recording on the 29th or was this the recording that you were gonna have on the ninth it's every Thursday or is that something. It's every Thursday. So, so it was so the 29th was like the original date, but I just kind of like did this as like a bonus just because I, I love mercury this way.

um, so, oh, okay. So, and by the way, for anybody that can't attend, a recording will be sent out, but as you guys can tell, it's pretty experiential and, uh, I want y'all to like, get involved and it's so different to be like in flesh and like actually talking as oppos, just like watching remotely. Right? I mean, this is kinda remote, but you know what I mean?

So let like, to the extent possible, if you can like show up pretty regularly, that'd be dope. If not, that's like, that's fine too. But, um, it's, it's better than that, I suppose. So, uh, every Thursday, seven o'clock central standard time. We might have events other days, other times, but this is the regular cadence.

Sounds good.

Was so great to be with you guys. Thank you for being here. Thank you for your energy exchange. Really appreciate every single one of you guys.

Thank you, Robin. A round of applause, an awesome job. And, uh, we'll meet Robin again next month. Yes, you will. Bye everyone. Thanks for being here. Bye. Take care. Take care.
