HUMAN DESIGN

Your Energy Type

KEY TAKE AWAYS!

- Human Design shows us how we are wired "energetically," and how we can maximize the potential of that energy.
- This cheatsheet is designed to give you the most salient points:
  - Role: Type
  - Personality: Profile
  - How You Make Decisions: Authority
  - World View (Inner Voice): Center
  - Specific Beliefs: Gates (electromagnetic frequency)
    - Your default setting on how you think, emote, relate, and act.
  - Your Self-Sufficient Superpower:
    - Channel (constant energy-generator)

Deconstructing Your Chart

Centers
The colored or blank geometric shapes are Centers, which correspond to specific functions. If colored, they indicate a fixed and reliable connection, while blank centers imply vulnerability. In essence, they reflect your strengths and weaknesses.

Gates
The Gates, which begin at the energy centers and are marked with numerals, are colored lines that extend halfway or fully between two energy centers. These gates signify your cognitive processes, behaviors, and interpersonal connections.

Channels
A channel is when two gate lines connect to create a strong relationship between energy centers. Channels represent places where you tend to feel particularly in sync or solid.

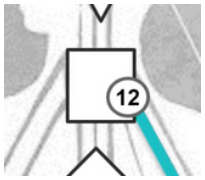
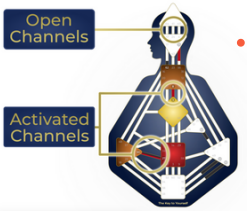
KEY



- Undefined Center
- Hanging Gate

- Defined Center
- Active Gate



- Active channel: a "colored" in line between two active gates, within two defined centers

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Open your free chart
2. Using your chart, color in which center (shape) is defined on the diagram below
3. Circle the gates that are active or hanging
4. Outline the lines that are colored in your chart (not half-way, but fully lined).
5. Journal below, and continue on a separate sheet if you run out of space.

CENTER

- Defined Center: What "fixed" world views/beliefs or habits do I have in these centers that keep me rigid?

CHANNELS

- Channels: What complete channels do you have? Do you feel like you're tapping into the gifts of these channels, how/how not?
  -
- On the fllipside, do you recognize where you might be "fixed" or stubborn in these defined channels?
  -
  -
  -
- PS. If you don't have any defined channels, and only half-way channels, do you recognize where you have a lot of "focus" in the area - but maybe more easily influenced?
