Black Tourmaline - Ways to Use

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

What's your belief around energetic relationship-building?

Do you let fear take over when it comes to dealing with people in position of power? Are you willing to try hand-shaking visualization to shift that belief/dynamic?

What other rituals do you have to protect your energy?

Remember, you can create your own rituals as well. This is all about INTENTION and being PROACTIVE, there is no one way to do things.
